FACTS® TRAINING OPENS NEW EUROPEAN TRAINING BASE

GENEVA, SWITZERLAND (May 17th, 2011) – FACTS® Training International announced today that it will open its first European fixed training base in Amsterdam in July, 2011.

FACTS Training specializes in crew member emergency procedures training for business aviation. The company's courses combine classroom instruction with extensive hands-on equipment drills to provide an elite training experience for pilots, flight attendants, maintenance technicians and flight engineers.

FACTS trained crews receive instruction on land and water evacuation procedures including water ditching, inflight and ground emergencies, inflight medical, smoke and live fire fighting, turbulence, decompression, hypoxia awareness, crew coordination and more, using aircraft specific safety and emergency equipment. The training courses meet the requirements for FAA Part 135, JAR-OPS1, and CAR 604 emergency procedures training.

"FACTS Training has long provided emergency procedures training to European operators on-demand," said Jeffrey Roberts, CEO of AirCare Solutions Group and FACTS Training International, "this new fixed base facility gives us a great platform on which to begin incorporating our innovative training tools and providing these operators and customers of our airframe OEM partners with an even better training experience."

The company has three fixed bases in the United States including Morristown, NJ, Dallas, TX and Long Beach California and hold over 100 classes each year. Classes in Amsterdam will commence in July, 2011.
